

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2017/139

Certain aluminium zinc coated steel

Exported from the People's Republic of China

Extension of time granted to issue the final report in relation to two reviews of anti-dumping measures

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 8 May 2017, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of two reviews of anti-dumping measures, in the form of a dumping duty notice and a countervailing duty notice, in respect of certain aluminium zinc coated steel (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China as they affect Baoshan Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. (Baosteel) and Shanghai Meishan Iron & Steel Co., Ltd (Meisteel).

A full description of the goods is available in that notice, Anti-Dumping Notice No. 2017/63 (initiation notice). The initiation notice is available on the Anti-Dumping Commission's (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that a recommendation to the Assistant Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science and the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry, Innovation and Science (the Parliamentary Secretary)¹ would be made in a final report on or before 10 October 2017.

To properly consider the Commission's approach to the ordinary course of trade test applying to both Baosteel and Meisteel, and to further verify information provided by Meisteel, I, Paul Sexton, General Manager of the Anti-Dumping Commission, requested an extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to provide his final report and recommendations to the Parliamentary Secretary.²

² On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZHI of the Customs Act 1901 to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission. See Anti-Dumping Notice No. 2017/10 on the Commission's website for further information.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901,³ extended the deadline to provide his final report and recommendations to the Parliamentary Secretary.

Recommendations in relation to both reviews will now be made in a report due on or before 9 December 2017.

Documents included on the public record may be examined at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number +61 3 8539 2424 or at investigations1@adcommission.gov.au.
