ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2019/14

Investigation number 441

Alleged Dumping of Certain Steel Pallet Racking

Exported from the People's Republic of China and Malaysia

Further extension of time granted to provide the Final Report to the Minister

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 13 November 2017, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commissioner) published a notice announcing the initiation of an investigation into the alleged dumping of certain steel pallet racking (the goods) exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China (China) and Malaysia.

A full description of the goods is available in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2017/161 (initiation notice) available on the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commission) website at www.adcommission.gov.au.

The initiation notice advised that a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Science and Technology (the Minister) would be made in a final report on or before 17 April 2018.

The Commission has since published four notices confirming extensions of time to publish the SEF and to provide the final report to the Minister (ADN Numbers 2018/34, 2018/79, 2018/134, and 2018/162 refer). ADN 2018/162 advised that the SEF would be placed on the public record no later than 5 November 2018, with a recommendation to the Minister made in a final report on or before 21 January 2019¹.

Due to the complex nature of the case and number of detailed submissions made in response to the Statement of Essential Facts, I, Justin Wickes, Acting General Manager, Anti-Dumping Commission, requested a further extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to provide his final report and recommendations to the Minister.²

¹ On 17 December 2018, an extension of time was granted by the Commissioner.

² On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission delegated his powers and functions under section 269ZH of the Customs Act 1901 to the General Managers of the Anti-Dumping Commission.

The Commissioner has, under subsection 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901,³ further extended the deadline to provide his final report and recommendation to the Minister. A recommendation to the Minister will now be made in a report due on or before 4 February 2019 if the case is not terminated before this date.

Documents included on the public record may be examined at www.adcommission.gov.au or at the Commission's office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the case manager on telephone number +61 2 6276 1462, fax number +61 3 8539 2499 or email at investigations4@adcommission.gov.au.
