Aurora Glass Fibre, the sole Australian producer of fibreglass gun rovings, has advised the Australian Customs Service that it intends to cease the production of fibreglass gun rovings shortly.

Accordingly, under section 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, the Australian Customs Service has terminated its inquiry into whether the anti-dumping measures currently applying to exports of fibreglass gun rovings to Australia should be continued. The measures apply to certain exporters in Brazil, Korea and Taiwan.
